Biodata:

　Gloria graduated from Tunghai University with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in 1990. In 1992, she completed a Master Degree in Instruction and Curriculum from Seattle Pacific University,

U.S.A..She worked at different levels in the education system of Taiwan and the first English teacher to pioneer an advanced English club as an extra curriculum course in Tunghai Elementary school. She earned her Doctor of Philosophy Degree in Languages and Linguistics at University of Essex in U.K. in 2005. She is now an associate professor at the College of Education started from Aug. 2018 after 13 years of teaching at the Dept. of Applied English Language, Hungkuang University in Taiwan. Not only has she developed several eLearning programs for university level reading courses, but has also served as a member of the National Entrance Examination Committee Board in designing reading and writing assessments since 2009. Her research interests include word reading processing, literature circle, EFL(Teaching English as foreign language), EIL (Teaching English as an International Language) and ESP (Teaching English for specific purpose), Teaching methods, and educational technology. She was also awarded as the Super Teacher in 2013 and participated in 2014 local MOE project promoting reading program for ten Elementary schools in Taichung. She was appointed as the acting chair of the Language Center since July 2015 and was in charge of the blueprint of the 2016 MOE project titled Enhancing and Integrating Cross Culture Awareness into Freshman English course Curriculum. Started from Aug 2017, Gloria is the first forerunner from the former Applied English Dept. to engage with one term Higher Education Spout academic industrial collaboration project with Pouhsin publisher. One of the tasks includes working on a book project that will serve as a handbook for English teachers, who are interested to draw on more authentic information to teach English as an international language or parents who are interested in home schooling their kids, and students who will take teaching English as the second language or relevant cross culture courses to increase their awareness of the emerging third culture kids' (TCK) population in the increasingly globalized world.
